Earth Rescue celebrates visionary companies and their breakthrough technologies that will help in the fight against climate change. Ansys simulation helps these companies power innovation that drives major advancements in sustainability initiatives — from carbon-free fusion energy, to renewable energy from non-recyclable, non-compostable waste. Each episode of Earth Rescue includes conversations with Ansys customers across industries and around the globe as they bring their world-changing, world-saving ideas to reality faster.

"The caliber of the work this season coming from creators such as Ansys truly has reflected the theme of breaking out and standing out," said Sabrina Dridje, executive director of The Telly Awards. "Our industry is experimenting with new technologies like never before, crafting truly compelling stories to draw attention to some of the world's most pressing issues, and companies big and small are turning to more sustainable practices to break the cycle of past production processes."

This year's announcement caps a year-long celebration of creators and talent who truly stand out during a time when the ubiquity of screens brings more clutter than quality into our lives. These are the creators and innovators who spotlight diverse voices, who are building a more sustainable industry, and who break through the static with their creativity.

"We are honored to be recognized by the Telly Awards for our Earth Rescue video series, which highlights innovative companies leveraging Ansys simulation in the fight against climate change," said Andy Kincheloe, vice president of global marketing, channel, and go-to-market operations at Ansys. "We're proud of our talented creators' ability to bring these customer stories to life and showcase the inventive technologies that will help solve one of the world's most unifying challenges."

This was a record-breaking year with nearly 13,000 entries from across the globe and top video and television content producers such as Airbnb, Audible, BET Networks/BET Digital, BritBox, Disney, FEMA, Gaumont, Golden State Warriors, MediaMonks, NASA, National Geographic Society, Netflix, Paramount, PBS Digital Studios and more.
