Item 8.01 Other Events.

As previously announced, on January 15, 2024, ANSYS, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the “Company” or “Ansys”), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”), with Synopsys, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“Synopsys” or “Parent”), and ALTA Acquisition Corp., a Delaware corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of Synopsys (“Merger Sub”). The Merger Agreement provides that, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth therein, Merger Sub will merge with and into Ansys (the “Merger”), with Ansys surviving the Merger as a wholly owned subsidiary of Synopsys.

On May 14, 2024, Synopsys received a notice from the State Administration for Market Regulation of the People’s Republic of China, which acknowledges Synopsys’ contemplated acquisition of Ansys is below the Chinese merger notification thresholds set by the State Council but takes the position that Synopsys is required to notify the transaction. On July 10, 2024, Synopsys submitted a notification of transaction to the State Administration for Market Regulation of the People’s Republic of China. The transaction is anticipated to close in the first half of 2025, subject to the receipt of required regulatory approvals and other customary closing conditions.

These risks, as well as other risks associated with the proposed transaction, are more fully discussed in the proxy statement/prospectus filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) in connection with the proposed transaction. While the list of factors presented here is, and the list of factors presented in the proxy statement/prospectus are, considered representative, no such list should be considered to be a complete statement of all potential risks and uncertainties. Unlisted factors may present significant additional obstacles to the realization of forward-looking statements.
